A small group study program to teach the appreciative way and transform your church's culture.

APPRECIATIVE, TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND COACHING COMPETENT LEADERS

Roslyn Center, Richmond, VA. October 15-19, 2012

FROM CHAPLAIN TO LEADER

For the past 50 years we have trained clergy to be chaplains. While these are important skills for working with individuals they do not prepare clergy to lead congregations. This program is designed to teach and coach church leaders to move from a chaplaincy model of caring for individuals to a leadership model of creating vision and leading congregations to manifest their God given purpose.

If we want to move from maintenance to mission we need to teach and coach clergy to be leaders, not just chaplains.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- ◆ Clergy interested in developing their leadership skills.
- ◆ Professionals interested in coaching clergy.
- ◆ Professionals interested in church consulting.

PROGRAM CONTENT

This program uses a variety of Executive Coaching Assessments including a 360 degree leadership inventory, appreciative inquiry processes, case studies, and exercises to help participants:

- ◆ Learn the essential elements of competent leadership.
- ◆ Create vision and understand the role of leaders in facilitating change.
- ◆ Grow in their self-knowledge about their leadership and coaching style.
- ◆ Use appreciative inquiry based strategies in times of conflict.

OUR TRAINING PHILOSOPHY

Rob Voyle's personal mission is to be helpful, humorous, and healing, and our training programs reflects these values in practical, creative and transformational ways.

*Here is what one participant said about our coaching and leadership program:
"After 45 years in ministry and attending Rob's training I have finally learned a better way to help church leaders help themselves and the people they lead."*

John Wilkerson, Director: Church Leadership Coaching & Consulting.
